

The President Says:

That was a fine Assembly program Wednesday. It seemed to me more students sang as if they wanted to sing, than usual. Fun and informality have their place, but this was a formal assembly. We saw a senior preside with dignity, we heard one sing beautifully, others spoke of things which all of us should know about the College. There was one demonstration of an excellent extemporaneous address. We met, at least at long range, the heads of various student organizations.

Such a senior class is a credit to the College, and should be a help and inspiration to the other classes.

UEL W. LAMKIN,
President

War Experiences Will Be Recounted When Miss Lilette Holbert Speaks

French Woman to Address
College Assembly Here
Wednesday Morning.

Chooses to Be American
Miss Holbert Saw Germans Take
Over City of Paris; Her Mother
Is Still in France

Having lived in Paris until after it was taken by the Germans is part of the experience Miss Lilette Holbert will bring to bear on what she has to say when she addresses the College Assembly on Wednesday morning. By rare good fortune the assembly committee is able to bring this French woman to the College.

Miss Holbert will lecture on conditions in France as she knows them. She speaks well and is a most attractive young woman. She comes to the College from Omaha, where she will fill a return engagement for the Rotary Club of that city.

The speaker is the daughter of Mr. Fred Holbert, a well-known Iowa, who was always connected with business interests in France, through his dealing in Percheron horses. He was with the American Expeditionary Force in France. He married a French woman and had two daughters, both of whom are now in America. After the death of her father and when she was 21 years of age, Miss Lilette Holbert had the choice as to whether she should be an American citizen or a French citizen. She chose to be an American. She now lives with her father's mother in Sioux City, Iowa.

Her mother is presumably still in Paris. The daughter has not heard from her, however, since the occupation. The assembly program will be omitted during the week of the Teachers Association meeting. On October 15, Mr. Main will read "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

Mr. Neece, Replacing Mr. T. E. Dorn, Is Here

Breathing deeply of wholesome Missouri air, Mr. Harold Neece, who arrived Monday to take the place of Mr. T. E. Dorn, Jr., in the commerce department, pronounced this part of the country very much to his liking.

Mr. Neece came from Sayre, Okla., which is dust bowl country and which accounts for his sincere appreciation of northwest Missouri's early fall greenness. Sayre is about 20 miles from the Texas line.

Mr. Neece taught last year at Oklahoma Western Junior College at Sayre. The year before that he taught at Oklahoma A. and M., Stillwater, in the school of vocational business, the junior college division of the school of commerce.

A graduate of the Southwest Missouri State Teachers College at Springfield, Mr. Neece has an M. S. degree from Oklahoma A. and M.

At the college here he is teaching accounting, a methods course, and supervising practice teachers in high school bookkeeping.

He and Mrs. Neece are living at 507½ West Third Street.

Scouts and Leaders Have Annual Play-day

Several College women took part in the activities of the annual play-day for Girl Scouts, held at the college park Monday from 4:30 until 7:30 o'clock. Among them were Miss Miriam Waggoner, who directed games; and Helen Johnson, Maxine Hoegman, and Charlotte Myers, who were group leaders.

About a hundred and fifty Girl Scouts and Scout leaders attended. Each brought a "nose-bag" lunch to supplement the wafers and marshmallows which were toasted around the troop camp fires.

On October 27 the Girl Scouts will hold their annual mother and daughter banquet in the dining room of the Methodist Church. Dr. Blanche H. Dow of the College will be the speaker.

On Sunday Morning Dr. Insley Is to Address Students

Sunday Morning Hour Will
Be in Hands of Student
Body of College.

The Reverend Winfield Scott Insley, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will address the students at the Sunday Morning Hour this coming Sunday, at 9:30. Ruth Millikan will lead the singing. The exercises will close in time for those who desire to attend church services down-town to do so.

President Lamkin was the speaker at the Sunday morning hour on September 21. Miss Marjorie Stone, teacher in Horace Mann high school, led the meeting. Helen Johnson read a chapter from "The Garden of the Prophet," by Gilman.

The faculty advisory committee in charge of the Sunday morning hour has asked for a meeting of students in Social Hall on Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock. Suggestions will be welcomed and plans will be made for the year. Announcements will be made each week regarding the topic to be studied.

The Sunday Morning Hour will be entirely under the direction of the students. The faculty advisory committee is made up of Eugene Seibert, Dr. Blanche H. Dow, Mr. Willbur Stalcup, and Miss Marian B. Lippitt.

Speech Teachers
Are Summoned to State Meeting

Saturday, September 20, at Jefferson City, Mr. John Rudin and Mr. Robert Main of the College Speech Department attended a called meeting of State Speech representatives. Mr. R. P. Krogel, State Speech Supervisor, presided over the meeting and plans were made for the year's speech program in the Teachers Colleges of Missouri.

The planned program will include High-School Debate Tournaments, and demonstrations of speech re-education in Elementary schools, two new projects for this year.

Mr. Rudin and Mr. Main attended the meeting of the Governing Board of State Association of Speech Teachers, and assisted in completing plans for the state convention to be held in St. Louis on December 5. Mr. Rudin and Mr. Main plan to attend the meeting of Debate coaches of Kansas and Missouri to be held in Kansas City in early December.

The first meeting of the year for those interested in Forensics and Dramatics was held at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon in room 119. Mr. Main announced the year's dramatic play which will include three major productions and numerous one-act plays and skits. One of these, "Box and Cox," will be presented in the Assembly October 29.

Mary Ann Busby, president of Pi Kappa Delta, honorary forensic fraternity, called a meeting of Pi Kappa Delta. Under its new sponsor, Mr. Rudin, the fraternity plans to stimulate interest this year in student discussions and inter-collegiate speech activities on the campus.

The intercollegiate forensic program of the year will provide opportunity for students to discuss current issues before community organizations. In addition, an intensive program of debate, oratory, and extemporaneous speaking will take activities, outstanding debaters will attend the national Pi Kappa Delta Tournament at Minneapolis, Minnesota in the spring. In last year's Provincial Tournament, college speech students won a first, two seconds and other awards in oratory, extemporaneous, and debate.

The directors of Forensics and Dramatics have announced that all students wishing to participate are invited to call at the Speech Office, Room 118.

Moyer Will Leave Today
For Service in Army

Donald Ernest Moyer, Hopkins, leaves today for induction into the United States army under the selective service act.

Mr. Moyer, a graduate of the Maryville State Teachers College, teaches at Hopkins. He was called by the local board at Harrisburg, Pa., but will leave from Maryville.

Both the President and Mr. McNutt emphasized the great value of educational forums and public discussion which have been promoted during the past six years by the United States Office of Education. The administrator expressed special interest in the recognition of public discussion as a means of building civilian morale.

"Good morale," said Mr. McNutt, "is as important to defense as guns and planes. Morale in a democracy is unity of purpose based on common understanding. That kind of morale thrives on free and full discussion. The responsibility of promoting democratic discussion falls on our traditional institutions which we have set up for enlightenment—our colleges and schools. I am sure that our institutions of learning will respond wholeheartedly to the request of the President of the United States."

Mr. McNutt announced that he was calling on the United States Commissioner of Education, John W. Studebaker, to take immediate steps to adapt the experience and organization of the Office of Education in launching the program proposed by the President.

William Yates, an alumnus of the College, has taken a position at the Westvaco Chlorine Products Company in Charleston, West Virginia. Mr. Yates has been an instructor in chemical engineering at Rolla for the past three years.

Donald Heath visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heath of King City, last week-end.

Virgil Klontz Looks Forward to Vacation

Virgil Klontz, former member of the staff of the Northwest Missourian, writes from 5509 West 119 street, Inglewood, Calif., saying, "September and school days are again upon us, and so I am again sending another dollar to start the Missourian on its weekly trips to the West."

Mr. Klontz is employed in the aircraft industry. He is now eligible for a vacation and says, "You can expect to be seeing me at the college soon." He has had an advancement in his position, being now in charge of a few men as working lead-man. He is continuing work in night school.

Other men from the College are in the West, according to the letter from Mr. Klontz. He says that Harold Hedburg is with Consolidated Steel in Los Angeles, Kirtley Neale is automobile salesman in Glendale, J. B. Gooding is at Douglas Aircraft in Santa Monica, Kenneth Crawford is at Vega Aircraft in Burbank, and John Landrum is salesman at Sears-Roebuck in Los Angeles.

Seven Men Study Goals Set up by State Committee

They Formulate Plans for Furthering Education in Northwest Missouri.

A committee of seven men named by the Knights of the Hickory Stick at its meeting last week, met Wednesday afternoon at the College to discuss plans for the development of education in Northwest Missouri. Those serving on the committee are Hugh Graham of Trenton, a member of the executive committee of the Missouri State Teachers Association; Harold Puckett, Savannah, president of the Knights of the Hickory Stick; Wallace Croy, Maryville, vice-president of the Knights of the Hickory Stick; Hubert Garrett, Maryville, secretary-treasurer of the Knights; Tracy Dale, St. Joseph, president of the State Association of School Administrators; Joseph Herndon, County Superintendent of Platte County; and President Uel W. Lamkin of the College. Mr. Lamkin and Mr. Herndon are members of the Policies and Plans Committee appointed several years ago by the Missouri State Teachers Association.

The Policies and Plans Committee, headed this year by Dean Irwin F. Coyle of the Junior College, Flat River, Missouri, suggests that teachers of Missouri make a special study of a series of goals formulated some time ago by the committee as desirable to stress in the development of education in Missouri. The committee which met at the College on Wednesday afternoon worked toward setting up some tangible things to be accomplished in this district.

Last week's meeting of the Knights of the Hickory Stick, to which women were invited, was one of a series of meetings called in the various teacher's college districts in Missouri. In attendance at this meeting were Dean Coyle; Charles A. Lee, former State Superintendent of Schools and member of the Policies and Plans Committee; Everett Keith, secretary of the Missouri State Teachers Association; and Tom Walker, editor of School and Community.

Excerpts from the call for the special meeting of the Knights of the Hickory Stick, sent out by Dean Coyle, indicate the thinking that is back of this meeting and of the meeting of the committee of seven. They have to do with the problems relative to the development of Missouri education. They follow:

"The first consideration in staff improvement is the problem of selection and preparation of candidates for the teaching profession and the improvements of teachers after they enter the profession.

"If Missouri is to have a thoroughly trained and thoroughly professionalized corps of teachers, it is essential that these teachers receive adequate compensation for services rendered.

"The Committee holds the point of view that the public school has been somewhat negligent in acquainting the people with the purposes and practices of public education.

"The Policy and Plans Committee would like to receive suggestions from members of the profession as to contributions which the Committee can make to the preservation, improvement, and advancement of public education in Missouri."

Memories
Ten times it fell,
That awful blow;
When it would stop
I could not know.

But others there
Were suffering too—
Their cries of woe
Climbed to the blue.

The pain has left,
Healed by the years,
But Walkout Day
Still brings the tears.

Miss Hope Wray of the class of 1941, who has been working for the Maryville School of Aeronautics since her graduation, is now taking a vacation. She is visiting relatives and friends in Chicago.

Bruce Peters spent the week-end with his parents in Creston, Iowa.

College Physician Is Injured by Automobile

Dr. F. R. Anthony, college physician, was injured slightly Friday night when he was knocked down by a backing automobile. The injuries Dr. Anthony received were not great enough to cause him to miss the East Kentucky State Teacher's football game. He was, however, taken to the St. Francis Hospital after the game.

Faculty and students of the College will be glad to know that Dr. Anthony's condition is reported as good, and that he is expected to return to his home in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Talley
Give University Program

Helen Dvorak Talley, who before her marriage taught violin in the College for several years, appeared yesterday with her husband, V. Howard Talley, in an interpretative recital in Chicago, on the Fiftieth Anniversary Week Program at the University of Chicago.

Their program, violin and piano, was given as one of the sessions of the Alumni School in session at the university during the week.

Mr. Talley is Professor of Music in the University of Chicago. His field is piano. According to the Alumni Bulletin, he has been at work on a composition which embodies themes of music written in 1891, the first year of the University of Chicago. The implication in the article was that he would use the number on his program.

Helen Dvorak Talley needs no introduction to Maryville people. She was popular not only as a teacher but as a concert violinist while she was here.

Twenty-fourth Annual Meeting of Northwest Missouri District Teachers Association Will Meet October 9-10

LEONARD JONES
Association President

Seniors Give Annual Program for Students

The annual senior assembly was held at 10:00 o'clock Wednesday morning, September 24, with Harvey Davis, president of the class of 1942 presiding.

The audience, led by Lewis Horton sang "America the Beautiful". Miss Jo Nell Watts was the accompanist. Wallace Oursler gave the scripture reading and led the group in prayer. Marvin Gench, baritone, sang two selections. Talks on various phases of college life were made by Walter Johnson, Richard McDougal, Miss Florence Abar, and Theodore Young. Seniors who are presidents of campus organizations were introduced by Miss Mary Frances McCaffrey.

In conclusion the senior class sang "Alma Mater" with the audience participating in the final verse and chorus.

O'Neill Club Makes
Plans for Coming Year

The O'Neill Dramatic Club met Tuesday night. Plans were made for the coming year.

It was decided that the club would meet the second and fourth Monday of each month starting on September 29th.

A Fall party is planned which will include both debate and dramatics as part of the program.

Plans for the year include, a three act play, a Christmas program, several one-act plays, study of make-up, scenery building and supervised readings.

Monday night officers will be elected, and two one-act plays will be cast.

Vogue Offers Career Awards to Students

Students of the College have an opportunity to try for awards and a career. Two careers in photography are being offered by Vogue, to one man and one woman who will be graduating in the class of 1942.

Six months with salary as a member of the Conde Nast Studio staff—and a permanent place in the studio if they prove adaptable to the work are the allurements. Cash prizes will also be given for the best photographs submitted on each problem.

Anyone who has a knack with a camera and is interested in photography as a career should go to the Northwest Missourian office for further information concerning details of this contest.

Football Bulletin
Gives Information
Concerning Team

The bulletin contains the names of the staff directors with a short write-up of the preparation and experience of each; a note on the captain of the team, Ivan Schottel of King City; a list of Bearcats "caught in the draft," graduated, or otherwise not on the team of this year; a list of letter-men, with age, height, weight, home address, and special comment; a list of others on the squad, with number, position played, home address, age, height, weight and year in college; the 1940 record of the Bearcats; and a schedule of games.

The bulletin was prepared with the idea of putting into the hands of sports writers on the various papers to which it was sent accurate information about the football season and the players who will take part. It was mailed to sports editors in leading papers of the Northwest district, to the Kansas City, St. Louis, Des Moines, and Omaha papers, and to papers in the towns where the Bearcats will play.

NYA Bookbinding Group
Report Progress Made

In room 215, where girls are busily engaged in bookbinding, there are on display various articles made by these girls in the Related Training Class under the supervision of the Fine Arts Department. Some of these articles are finger paintings, handpainted trays, book-ends, pillow tops, scrapbooks, and belts made of squares of cork which are hand decorated and put together with leather lacing.

The bookbinding project in room 215 which formerly was the old Book Store has been located here at the College since November 27, 1939. Since July 1, 1941, it has been sponsored by the National Youth Administration and the College. It is a county wide project.

Mrs. Irene Egan has been in charge of this project since its beginning.

All students who expect to complete the curriculum requirements for the B. S. or B. It is the desire of the Registrar to furnish a Senior Statement Sheet (a statement of all remaining requirements) by the opening of the winter quarter in order that the student may use it as a guide at registration.

Sunday Morning Hour
Sunday Morning Hour this week was not well attended, but it was worthwhile. The spirit of reverence that pervaded the service from the prelude, "Sweet Hour of Prayer," played by Doris Lee Spicer, to the Mizpah benediction—"May the Lord watch between me and thee while we are absent one from the other"—was remarkable. No one who heard the selection from "The Garden of the Prophet," read by Helen Johnson and the informal talk by President Lamkin could have come away without having done some effective thinking of his or her own. If for no other reason than to have taken part in the singing of the good old hymns of the Church, one could have come away feeling better for having attended the Sunday Morning Hour.
Those who have never attended a service should make it a point to go. This is an opportunity students and faculty should not miss. Those who are not enrolled in Sunday School elsewhere are urged to attend regularly. Elsewhere will be found an announcement of the next Sunday Morning Hour.
Freshmen, Notice!
Out of the kindness of our hearts we warn all Freshman to don their little green hats and keep them doctored. We know that those big, naughty upperclassmen are just dying to catch some unsuspecting Freshman and wallop the daylight out of him. You know, Freshman, those little hats are symbolic of your utter greenness; when you take them off you assume grave responsibilities.

Women in Journalism
Positions for women with journalistic training seem to be increasing if items in the Missouri Press News, organ of the Missouri Press Association, are an index to what is happening. The issue of September, 1941, carries stories of three women graduates of the University of Missouri School of Journalism who have recently taken positions on Missouri newspapers.
The same issue carries the news that three women graduates of the School of Journalism who have been holding positions on newspapers have recently been married, and that two other newspaper women have also been married, one of them being Miss Mary Anne Hamilton of Maryville, a graduate of the College who had training through working on the staff of the Northwest Missourian before becoming society editor of the Carthage Democrat.
Perhaps women of the College will decide they should have journalistic experience on the staff of the college paper!

From the Dead
Zsolt de Harsanyi in his delightful book "The Star-Gazer" reported a conversation between Galileo and his father. Galileo had just expressed a keen interest in work and his father said to him, "What do you mean by work?"
"Two different things," Galileo said. "And I don't know which of them tempts me more. One: to solve problems which my mind brings to me for solution. I've a hungry mind which can never be satisfied. It devours thoughts. It gnaws and nibbles at them incessantly. . . . The second thing I mean by work is bringing light into other minds. Instinct forces me to teach people all that I can find out for myself. I don't mind people's ignorance, but their half-knowledge maddens me with rage."

Quad Highlights
There arrived at the Quad last week 27 double deck spring coil beds which will be installed in the two west dormitories. These beds, which will accommodate 54 men, will be a distinct improvement over the "springless" type now in use in all of the Quad dormitories.
The newly inaugurated practice of the passing out of sandwiches to Quad boarders after the Sunday noon meal takes care of difficulty, which has arisen over the lack of a Sunday evening meal. The new practice not only takes care of the appetites of the men who eat at the Quad, but also allows the continuance of the practice of giving the cooks, Mrs. Stafford and Mrs. Nally, the Sunday night off.
Football players who were not allowed to drink milk at the football camp the week prior to the opening of the quarter may do so now, providing they are not to participate in a scrimmage or game immediately afterward, it has been announced. Needless to say that the gentlemen of the grid iron are making up for lost time—or milk—with a vengeance.
A search of the rooms of the men who live at the Quad indicates that of the periodical literature that most of them prefer is the sophisticated type—"Esquire" and "Swank"—variety. Running a not too good second place is the popular field, which includes magazines of the type of "Collier's," "Saturday Evening Post," and others of that ilk. The pulp magazines—western and adventure—are scarce indeed.
A further scrutiny of the rooms indicates that not only do the men prefer the sophisticated type of literature, but that they have a great fondness for the artistic material which is included in this type of periodical. Adorning many dormitory walls are "cheese cake" shots and illustrations clipped from the pages of the more mentioned "Swank" and "Esquire".
Especially interesting is the room occupied by the two lads from the "Windy City," Joe Lauchis and Babe Poll. These gentlemen have more "art work" adorning the walls of their room than do any other inhabitants of the Quad.
Among football players who live at the Quad, Jack Padilla, "mighty" of the Bearcat backfield, most markedly shows evidence of the fact that he participated in last Friday's contest with East Kentucky State Teacher's. His face, from a kick received early in the game, is, to say the least, "hamburgerish".
John Lanham, the freshman end candidate from Auburn, Illinois, checked in his football equipment last week. Lanham irritated an old knee injury and will be lost to the football squad indefinitely.
More or less intelligent group discussions are in order with the falling of night at the Quad. Some of the discussions which concern things political and religious are interesting, indeed, and some which concern such lighter subjects as women

Your Newspaper Staff
The Northwest Missourian issued its first edition last Friday, September 19, under the direction of Walter Johnson, editor, and Miss Mattie M. Dykes, adviser to the staff, Mr. Johnson was elected last Spring by the Student Senate to succeed Bertha Nelson, former editor of the paper. He was former associate editor of the paper.
Graduation has taken many of the staff but their places are being filled by students who are interested in the various phases of journalism. The staff members are given as much as possible their own choice of news to cover.
Betty Bower, a sophomore from Cowdell assists in the office but covers stories as well.
Jack Langston, a sophomore from Watson, has had a year of experience in the office of the Missourian. He also is on the staff as well as in the office.
Ted Woodward, a freshman from Ludlow, now a member of the staff and the office force, edited the "Flash", a monthly publication of the C. C. C., for two years. He also wrote a series of sports articles on baseball for the Ridgeway Journal.
The freshmen members of the staff are: Carl Tilly, Bethany; Buel Sanford, Maryville; Sue Holloway, Fairfax; Esther; Miller, Fairfax; and Barbara Johnson, Rosendale.
Staff meetings are held every Monday at 4 o'clock in room 303.
And what would you call it when Mr. Seibert asked one of the Horace Mann teachers to ride home and the two walked down to the parking spot near Horace Mann only to have Mr. Seibert remember that his car was parked north of the Administration Building?
The Ginger-Snapper got a scoop on the Stroller and picked up this one:
"Dr. Klempell (calling the roll): 'Miss Curmutt?'
Carolyn Curmutt: 'Oh, just call me Connie. Everybody does.'"
Then Jim Woodburn, just to be cute, responded to his name, "Oh, just call me Fu-Chu. Everybody does."
The freshman who went to the library and asked for a book on "how to live straight" ought to be commended rather than made fun of. The assignment was from the book "How to Think Straight."
Mounted specimens of 252 native Georgia birds are contained in the Emory University museum.

We Like Cooperation
Your newspaper staff is finally obtaining some semblance of order out of the chaos of a new school year. Graduations, the draft, and the Pilot Training Program had thinned the ranks to the point of extinction. Now, however, with a dozen or more aspiring young journalists on the staff we can become more optimistic for the future.
We know that those persons devoting time and energy to the production of the paper will be well rewarded for their effort. There is no substitute for the thrill that comes with viewing the finished product, realizing you have contributed to its production.
We hope that those persons not directly associated with the Northwest Missourian will continue their excellent cooperation.

The Stroller
Greetings and salutations! Another week is here bringing another column to write. The Stroller loses more and more sleep trying to keep up with all of you lads and lassies by being every where at once. The strain is almost too much for her delicate constitution. You should try going without sleep, peeking into windows, hiding behind doors, hunting the favorite haunts, besides keeping an eye on the Quad, library, dormitory, for twenty-three years.
Friday wasn't the thirteenth, but it certainly was an unlucky day for the Bearcats, especially little Jack Padilla. Friday afternoon Jack scattered himself and his books all over the lower hall much to the amusement of the two o'clock "Bench Sitters." Then Friday night he met with disaster at the hands of the big Kentucky tackle. Poor Jack, he must have lost his rabbit's foot. My, what big black eyes you do have, Jack!
With the re-opening of the bowling alley down town, another rendezvous for college young people has returned. More work for the Stroller, but he likes to bowl; so why should he complain?
Cupid has certainly been busy with his little darts lately. Even one of the "college widowers," Harvey Davis, who doesn't like to be called a "college widower," has deserted the ranks for little Anna Jean Dorton. Is he leaving permanently or just A. W. O. L.?
Joe Lauchis and Allan Poll, the two noisy lads from the windy city, created much disturbance with their "Brenda and Cobina" act at the last football game. So interesting were their antics that spectators in the near vicinity found it difficult to concentrate on the football game.
This week is rush week in case you didn't already know. That accounts for the angelic looks on the faces of certain freshmen girls and the horrible expressions of certain boys. Oh, now, boys, it only comes once a year so you ought to be able to last one week without your girl friend. You'll have over thirty more weeks to make up for the lost time.
With Dr. Anthony in the hospital there seem to be several bad cases of "heart trouble" around the campus. Janice Jordan and Ellis Rosenquist, Ralph "I-made-the-column-last-week" Moyer and Aldyce Whitehill, and Elmer Hawk and Margaret Arnold are among the victims.
Have you noticed all the squeaky knees around the campus. Football, hockey, dance club, and freshmen physical education classes are certainly causing some stiff joints.
Quiet?? Dignified?? Ralph Strange really created havoc over at the Quad the other night with his made-man act. From what the Stroller saw, Ralph should go on the stage, for he caused about the same effect that Orson Welles caused with his "Men from Mars" broadcast. One of the brave boys even tried to leap from the second story window.
Charles Colyne seems to be spending this week in the dog house. At any rate he certainly is going to have some talk explaining to do.
At last the Stroller is free from all embarrassing circumstances, for the Freshmen have at last donned their green caps. The Stroller can now come to college without being ordered to button or to go around to the East door a dozen times a day. One would think he would lose some of his greenness after twenty-three years on the campus, or at least someone should remember what he looks like from one year to the next.
Well, so long children! Now to start on next week's column. A man's work is never done.

Tri Sigma Rush Week Features Carnival Party

Entertainment Lends an Informal Atmosphere to Sorority Rush.

The Sigma Sigma Sorority entertained 24 rushees with informal progressive parties at the homes of Mrs. Harry Mutz, Mrs. Forrest Gilliam and Mrs. Henry Blanchard on Tuesday night, September 23. The parties carried out the carnival theme.

At the Gilliam home Bingo and Sigma were played, and gifts of footstool pin-cushions and colonial lamps were given to each girl. Refreshments of pop corn and apples were served.

In the recreation room of the Mutz home the girls danced and played games characteristic of carnivals, such as Penny Pitch and Hoops. The gifts presented there were flower pots containing flowers and bath salts. Ice cream cones were served.

A lawn party with a weiner roast and cokes provided the entertainment for the rushees at the home of Mrs. Blanchard. They also played ping-pong in the recreation room. The gifts presented were sachets for hangers.

Mrs. Edward Congdon, Miss Mary Fisher, Miss Margaret Owen, Miss June Cozine, Miss Helen Kramer, Mrs. Norval Saylor, and Miss Winifred Baker were guests. Miss LaVeta McQueen, of Rushville, is pledge captain of Sigma Sigma. The chairmen of the three parties were Miss Betty Gay and Miss Genella Pemberton, of Cameron; and Miss Barbara Leet, of Maryville.

The rushees were: Marjorie Campbell, Eleanor Peck, Vivian Foley, Margaret Irwin, Jimmie Lou Anderson, Beverly Blagg, Mary Bruce, Charlene Sanders, Nadine Allen, Vyvyan Dice, Dorothy Blank, Aldyce Whitehill, Marian Nunnally, Rosella Sample, Geneva McDowell, Phyllis Watsbaugh, Vernelle Bauer, Hattie Mae Costello, Mary Carolyn Schuster, Mona Alexander, Jean Gilpin, Marcia Kraschel and Glee Palm.

The formal rush party of Sigma Sigma was held Thursday night in the Tivoli Lounge. Ice cream and individual cakes were served and dancing and the show at the Tivoli provided the entertainment. Gold eversharps were presented as gifts.

Dance Club Devotes Meeting to Technique

The dance club held its first active meeting Tuesday evening, September 23, with about 20 members present and ready for work.

After a short tryout all club members agreed that they were in need of some serious practice on technique, and that limbering up exercises were also in order. The greater portion of the meeting was devoted, therefore, to the study of such technique as Miss Carruth felt the group could master.

The final quarter hour of the meeting was devoted to the study of the "figure," this composition being one of the several classical music forms which the group intends to interpret in modern manner this year.

The group is in the need of a great deal of money, and student patronage at the concession stand at the football game tonight will certainly be appreciated.

Commissions in "Y" Will Conduct Programs

The Y. M. C. A. held a get-acquainted party for college men in the Y. W. hut last night. Games and other types of entertainment were provided by a committee composed of Mack Jackson, J. R. Carpenter, and Emmert Kawson. Harvey Thompson and Kinsell Coulson served doughnuts and cider to those present.

Plans were discussed for getting the group organized into commissions, the fundamental units of the organization. The commissions to be used, working in conjunction with Y. W. C. A., are entitled: Campus Affairs, Religious Forum, Art Appreciation, Recreation, and Public Affairs. These commissions will soon be the acting forces which plan and carry out the programs of the Y.

Two Popular College Students Are Married

Miss Mary Jeanette Anthony, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. R. Anthony, 503 West Third street, and Harold Milton Hull, son of Judge and Mrs. Milton J. Hull, 502 East Seventh street, were married at 8 o'clock Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian church. Dr. W. S. Insley, pastor of the church, read the single ring ceremony before an altar banked with palms, cyrtolium ferns and baskets of Picardy gladioli.

Following the ceremony Mrs. Eldon Asbell, organist, played "To A Wild Rose" (McDowell); "Serenade" (Schubert); "Tiaumeri" (Schumann); and "Love's Old Sweet Song." She accompanied Miss Dorothy Lasell of Manilla, Ia., who sang "O, Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly." The traditional wedding marches were played for the processional and recessional, and during the ceremony Mrs. Asbell played "Liebestraum" (Liszt).

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, V. Price, of Springfield, Ark., wore a beige wool street dress with brown accessories and her shoulder corsage was orchids. Her attendant, Miss Frances Phares, wore an ice blue street dress with black accessories. Her shoulder corsage was yellow roses. Delbert ("Jack") Salmon acted as best man.

Mrs. Denton McGinness was in charge of the guest book and the ushers were Denton McGinness, J. R. McGregory and Gene Murray.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Hotel Linville for the bridal party and relatives. The T-shaped table was decorated with a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and a circle of Picardy gladioli blooms and ferns surrounded the cake. White tapers and bowls of Aubert buds were also used as table decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Hull left for a trip in the East and after October 1 will be at home at Akron, Ohio, where Mr. Hull is employed with the Good-year Tire and Rubber company.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. V. Price, Springfield, Ark.; M. L. Price and Mrs. W. H. Williams, Fayetteville, Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lippman, Lebanon, Mo.; Mrs. W. H. Hull, Albuquerque, N. M.; and Miss Helen Kyle and Al Miller, Manilla, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Crow had open house Saturday night at their home honoring the bridal party and out-of-town guests.

Newly Married Couple Leave for Eastern Trip

Miss Harriett Lasell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lasell of Maitland, was married to James W. Ray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ray of Oregon City, Ore., at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church in Maitland. Dr. W. S. Insley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Maryville, performed the single ring ceremony before an altar decorated with ferns, baskets of white chrysanthemums and lighted white tapers.

Following the ceremony H. N. Schuster of Maryville sang "I Love Thee" and "O, Promise Me." He was accompanied by Miss Marian J. Kerr of Maryville, who also played the traditional wedding marches. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white satin trimmed with pearls. Her fingertip veil edged with lace fell from a tiara of pearls. She carried a bouquet of orchids and gardenias.

The maid of honor was Miss Dorothy Lasell, sister of the bride, who wore a frock of pale blue taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Jean Zimmerman of Cameron and Mrs. Harold Hull, the former Miss Mary Jeanette Anthony, were bridesmaids. Miss Zimmerman wore a rose taffeta gown and Mrs. Hull wore a frock of aqua blue taffeta. They carried bouquets of yellow roses.

Thomas Ray of Oregon City, Ore., acted as best man for his brother, Robert Gregory and Harold Hull of Maryville, Donald Johnson of Oregon, and Robert Elmsinger of St. Joseph were ushers.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Those assisting with the serving included Misses Frances Phares and Mary Margot Phares, Maryville; Helen Crouch, King City; Coleen Hulitt, Maitland; Marian Belle King, Hopkins; Betty Jane Harazin, Alexandria, La.; Mary Winifred Caton, Mound City, and Mrs. Donald Johnson, Oregon.

Supply Store Is Real Business Enterprise at Horace Mann School

A real business enterprise is being carried on by the third grade of Horace Mann school in their store which has now come to be known as "The Horace Mann Supply Store."

Starting practically from scratch last year, near the latter part of October, the store is now in its second year of operation and since the opening of the school year has done what might be called a "land-office" business. A total of $18.25 has been taken in since school opened and it will be no time at all until sales start showing profit.

Some business debts have to be settled but these will be wiped off the books by the first of the month. Last year's stock, amounting to $14, purchased from the college book store, has been paid for and new stock in the amount of $7 was bought to start this year. Too, the third graders borrowed $10 from the kindergarten-primary (circus) fund to start the year's business, but this will be paid by the first of the month, and then the daily ledger book, balanced each evening, will start to show some "net profits."

A supply store in the true sense of the word, the store features tablets, pencils, crayons and various school supplies. Children in the primary rooms are the customers. Pencils are by far the biggest item in the store and about forty-five of these have been sold already this year.

There is an ordering committee and a treasurer for each month. Mary Lou Valk is the treasurer for this month and it is her duty to keep the money until she has one dollar, which is then turned in to Miss Evelyn Piper, teacher, who puts it into the "vault." Nicky Gray and Patty Price are the ordering committee for this month.

As soon as profits begin to be made, Miss Piper says that the children will have a bank account and taking the store money to the bank will be an additional duty for the children, who are already learning about business methods.

It is hoped, too, that some remodeling can be done on the store this year. There has been little "overhead" so far, but naturally such things increase as business increases.

The army's new "shirt-pocket" food rations—12-ounce, condensed meals—were developed by Dr. Ancel Keys of the University of Minnesota.

The Home Economics Club met Monday night in the Home Management House.

Miss June Cozine was the sponsor of the meeting of which Allene White, the president, was in charge. Anna Young who is the president of Kappa Omicron Phi, was introduced by Miss White to those present at the meeting.

The constitution was read and purposes of the club were briefly outlined. The Home Economics Club was organized in 1940 and is open to all women interested in Home Economics. The purpose of the club is to help the women of the college to get acquainted with the Home Economics Department both socially and educationally.

New officers will be elected and a sponsor selected at the next meeting.

Intermediate Teachers Picnic in College Park

The Intermediate Teachers club held a picnic at 5 o'clock, Tuesday evening, in college park. Miss Mildred Gathman, the club social chairman, was in charge of the committee on arrangements.

The club, composed of room teachers and student teachers in the intermediate department of Horace Mann school and Miss Ruth Keith, supervisor, has elected the following officers for the fall quarter: president, Mrs. Lois Cisco, Bethany; secretary, Miss Irene Hoover, Maryville; treasurer, Miss Esther Splinter, Maryville; program chairman, Miss Margaret Cunningham, Hardin, and social chairman, Miss Gathman.

College students were offered a real treat after the football game last Friday night at the all-school dance sponsored by the Independents. A lively crowd of approximately one hundred and seventy-five attended and danced to the gay melodies of the "juke-box."

During intermission several persons were awarded for attending the affair by holding the lucky numbers which entitled them to the door prizes.

The new idea of having hosts and hostesses was carried out with almost complete success. The usual "stag line" was greatly reduced, and everyone danced.

Pan-Hellenics Give Tea in Social Hall

The annual Pan-Hellenic tea for the Alpha Sigma Alpha and the Sigma Sigma Sororities was held Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 p. m. at the social and recreation hall at the college.

Miss Mary Frances McCaffrey, Miss Mary Margot Phares, Miss Miriam Waggoner, Miss June Cozine, Miss Mary Fisher, Miss Marian B. Lippitt and Miss Dorothy Truex were in the receiving line.

The serving table was decorated with a centerpiece of fall flowers in a crystal bowl.

Miss Margaret Owen and Mrs. Henry Blanchard served at the tea table the first hour and Mrs. J. W. Jones and Mrs. Clum Price served during the second hour.

Miss Lippitt Explains Handbooks to Villagers

The Varsity Villagers' council met Tuesday afternoon. The council members reported on the number of girls at each house. Miss Lippitt distributed Varsity Villager handbooks and explained their use.

Plans are being made for a Chili supper on October 3, and a Halloween Party the thirty-first.

Miss Lippitt asked that the council members encourage girls to join Varsity Villagers who do not live at residence hall.

Alumni of Chicago Show Desire to Be On the Quadrangle

Chicago University Gives Week to Celebration of Fiftieth Anniversary.

Members of the faculty of the College who are alumni of the University of Chicago have been heard talking this week of their Alma Mater, expressing a desire to be "on the Quadrangle" again. This week the University is celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of its founding.

The week of September 21-27 is devoted to alumni reunions and the Alumni School. The latter, an annual affair usually held in the spring, has been moved up to become a part of the anniversary celebration. Many famous names appear on the program, among them His Excellency Hu Shih, Ambassador of China to the United States; Robert Maynard Hutchins, president of the University; Richard Henry Tawney, Professor of Economic History in the University of London; Charles H. McIlwain, famous medieval scholar; and many others.

One of the programs members of the faculty here have expressed a desire to attend is one to be given tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 p. m. in Rockefeller Chapel. At that time the president of the University will receive the alumni gift to the University and address the assembly. Members of the faculty here have had a part in that gift. The committee here, serving under the chairmanship of Miss Mattie Dykes, interviewed Chicago alumni in Maryville and sent in their gifts to this fund, which was expected to reach the goal set for it last year. On the local committee were Miss Grace M. Shepherd, Miss Dora B. Smith, and Mr. W. T. Garrett.

The anniversary celebration will close Tuesday with the conferring of honorary degrees.

The men and women honored are as follows:

CHARLES E. ALLEN (Sc. D.), professor of botany at the University of Wisconsin, discoverer of sex chromosomes in plants.

EDWARD C. ARMSTRONG (H. L. D.), professor of French at Princeton university, authority on French language and literature.

CHARLES H. BEST (Sc. D.), professor and chairman of the physiology department at the University of Toronto, co-discoverer of insulin.

GEORGE D. BIRKHOFF (Sc. D.), dean of the faculty of arts and sciences at Harvard university, leading contributor to the fundamentals of dynamics.

ROBERT L. CALHOUN (D. D.), professor of historical theology at Yale university, leading American theologian and historian of philosophy.

LILY B. CAMPBELL (H. L. D.), professor of English at the University of California at Los Angeles, expert Elizabethan literature.

JOHN M. CLARK (LL. D.), professor of economics at Columbia university, brilliant investigator of business cycles.

REGINALD A. DALY (Sc. D.), professor of geology at Harvard university, authority on the origin of rocks and glaciers.

EDWARD A. DOISY (Sc. D.), professor of biological chemistry at St. Louis university, noted for his identification of pure female hormone and two types of vitamin K.

ERNEST W. GOODPASTURE (Sc. D.), professor of pathology at Vanderbilt university, inventor of new methods of studying disease viruses.

EVARTS A. GRAHAM (Sc. D.), professor of surgery at Washington university, St. Louis, nationally recognized for his contributions to the technique of modern surgery.

LIBBIE HYMAN (Sc. D.), member of the American Museum of Natural History in New York, noted for her contributions to the life processes of animals and internationally recognized as an authority on invertebrate zoology.

HERBERT S. JENNINGS (Sc. D.), professor emeritus of zoology at Johns Hopkins university, authority on the behavior of simple forms of animals and plant life.

HANS KELSEN (LL. D.), formerly professor of political science at Prague university, authority on jurisprudence.

KARL S. LASHLEY (Sc. D.), professor of neuropsychology at Harvard university, famous for his investigations of brain mechanisms.

ERNEST O. LAWRENCE (Sc. D.), professor of physics at the University of California, Nobel Prize-winning inventor of the cyclotron, making possible sub-atomic chemistry.

CLARENCE I. LEWIS (H. L. D.), professor of philosophy at Harvard university, authority on symbolic logic and the philosophy of science.

Chinese and Shop Themes Prevail at Alpha Sig Parties

Local Women Assist With Entertaining for Alpha Sorority Rushees.

The Alpha Sigma Alphas entertained their rushees Monday evening with four informal parties at the homes of Mrs. Robert Geist, Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mrs. Albert Kuchs, and at the Phares Tea Room. The parties had for their themes a sport shop, a pet shop, a drug store, and a jelly-joint.

The sport shop at the home of Mrs. Geist served hot dogs and cokes; the pet shop at the home of Mrs. Jones, served hot dogs and lemonade; sodas were served at the drug store in the Kuchs home; and at the jelly-joint, Phares Tea Room, the guests received cokes and popcorn. At each place games were played and the girls danced at Phares Tea Room. Favors and prizes were given at each party.

Wednesday evening the Alpha Sigma Alphas formal rush party was held at the Country Club. The theme of the party was Chinese and the decorations including air raid shelters and Chinese houses, were in keeping with this theme.

The guests ate from small wooden Chinese bowls and chopsticks were given for table favors. Gifts were teakwood novelties and brass candy dishes and cigarette lighters. Miss Dorothy Steeby furnished the music for the party.

Former Student and College Man Marry

Miss L. Loretta Reimer of Clearfield, Iowa, and Robert E. Frazer, son of Mrs. Lula Frazer of Maryville, were married Saturday evening at the First Methodist Church parsonage in Cameron, Missouri, with Reverend Mr. Hatten, pastor of the church, officiating. They were attended by Wallace Ketcham and Dorothy Matter of Amity, Missouri.

Mrs. Frazer has returned to her teaching at Creston, Iowa. Mr. Frazer will continue his school work at the college.

Social Committee Will Sponsor Dancette Today

Miss Marian Waggoner and Miss Maxine Williams will be the chaperones. Nadine Allen is general chairman of the dancette.

A dancette will be held in Room 114 this afternoon from 4 to 8 o'clock, sponsored by the Student Social Committee. The College Dance Band will play.

Former Student and College Woman Marry

Imogene Utz of Maysville, a student of the College, was married Monday, Sept. 22, to Mr. Glen Hensley of Mobile, Ala. The couple will reside in Mobile, where Mr. Hensley has a civil service appointment.

Y. W. C. A. Members Are Mrs. Dildine's Guests

The Y. W. C. A. met last night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Dildine. Mrs. Dildine told the group some of the most interesting incidents she experienced while on mission work in China and also showed them a number of Chinese articles.

A short business meeting explaining the organization of the Y. was also held during the evening.

Green and White Peppers

The Green and White Peppers met Tuesday evening at the Gym. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mary Francis Todd. Irene Heldeman was elected vice-president, and the new sponsor Miss Maxine Williams was introduced. She will take the place of Miss Day Weems.

The addition of new members was discussed, but nothing was definitely decided.

Soldiers Team Meets Bearcats Here Tonight

Strong Barracks Eleven Is Composed of Former College Athletes.

Bearcats Are Handicapped

Several Key Men on Injured List Including Schottel, Myers, and Jack Padilla.

Maryville Bearcats meet the Jefferson Barracks team of St. Louis, Missouri, here tonight at 8:00 o'clock. In addition to the handicap caused by so many last year regular squad members who were unable to return, five of the Bearcat regular squad members are likely to be unable to play due to injuries received in last week's game with East Kentucky and in practice.

The Jefferson Barracks team consists of many former college stars from several colleges and universities all over the United States. On the average the team out weighs the Bearcats about 20 pounds per man. Last week the Barracks team defeated Northeastern Oklahoma 36-6.

Coach Ryland Milner said Wednesday that he had been working the boys into their likely positions for this game and would have a hard time filling positions left by his valuable injured players. Those injured are: Ivan Schottel and Jack Padilla, veterans of the backfield; Harold Flammang, regular center; Meland Thompson, regular tackle; and Frank "Spec" Myers veteran end. Padilla, Flammang, and Schottel may be in shape to play a short while but they will not be allowed to play much for fear of further injuries which might keep them from playing in other coming games of the season.

Coach Milner said that their hopes for winning were not very high but that they would try to play them a good game.

Next Friday night at 8:00 the Chadron Nebraska Teachers will be here to meet the Maryville Bearcats in another non-conference game.

The probable lineups for the Maryville-Barracks game are:

Hellerich	LE	May
Farrell	LT	Moyer
Gregory	LG	Marlin
Yeaman	C	Lee
McClinton	RG	Conlon
Ellison	RT	D. McKinnon
Totoraitis	RE	Newendorf
Bennett	LH	Bovinnich
Peters	RH	Cone
Appleby	FB	J. McKinnon
Schmagel	QB	Palmer

Introducing Our Own Humming Birds to You

Last night's Kansas City Star carried a story about the small boys in the backfield of the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College football squad, dubbing them the "Humming Birds." Editorially, may we observe that "Humming Birds" and Bearcats ought to make a good combination—Bearcats to do the clawing and Humming Birds to dazzle the eyes of the big soldiers they are going to meet tonight on the field. You've heard of dazzling people till they see "dicky birds."

Do you know the Worry Bird and the Itty Bitty Worry Bird—the two fellows on which you are supposed to pin all your worries? Let's call the Humming Birds our worry birds. Like the Worry Birds, they may not "care a darn where they are going, but they want to see where they've been," and if they go where the whole college hopes they will go, it will be right through the lines to victory for the Humming Birds and the Bearcats. Then they will be more than glad to "see where they've been."

The first A. A. U. P. meeting is scheduled for 6:30 p. m., Tuesday night, Sept. 30, at Linville Hotel. Price of dinner is fifty cents. Please make reservation with Miss Cozine by Monday morning.

Captain Schottel

He has no equal in blocking and backing up a line. He lettered in 3 major sports last year. This is his fourth year on the squad. He comes from King City and is a fine fellow.

Bearcats Falter In Final Period, Losing 7 to 18

Maryville's Passing Attack Scores a Touchdown Against East Kentucky.

Maryville's outwheeled and less experienced Bearcats were unable to withstand a crushing fourth period attack by the Eastern Kentucky Teachers in the opening grid game here last Friday. After what appeared might be an upset, with the Bearcats leading 7 to 6 at the end of three quarters, the game took a sudden turn.

In the final period the powerful boys, Bert "Special Delivery" Smith, Joe Bill Siphers and Frank Planagan turned on the power to score two touchdowns and turn a deficit into an 18 to 7 victory.

The Maroons from Richmond, who play only upperclassmen, as the school observes the three-year rule, showed a more potent running attack, with the backs blocking well to let the runner get out in the open.

Potent Aerial Attack

While the Bearcats, forced to use many freshmen, were stalled on their running attack, they gave the Maroons many unhappy moments with their aerial attack which shows possibilities of becoming a dangerous threat to MIAA opponents. The Bearcats combined laterals behind the line as the first step in the forward pass attack that finally resulted in a touchdown that put Maryville ahead.

Coach Ryland Milner kept Captain Ivan Schottel in the line-up except for the last two minutes, not having a competent fullback and linebacker ready for competition. As the result, Schottel played until he was groggy.

The game was not without its thrills, the Maroon runners getting off some fine sprints, and the Bearcats brought the crowd to its feet on completed passes. Schottel, Bill Bennett and Art Schmagel were the losers, who made some fine placements to runners who just missed by a slender margin. The contest also showed that the Bearcats have a potential threat in a freshman by the name of Bruce Peters from Creston, Ia., who got away to some good gains.

The line-ups:

Maryville	Position	Kentucky
Hellerich	LE	Shuster
Thompson	LT	F. Darling
Gregory	LG	Perry
Flammang	C	Huan

Expect to Catch Any Whiffinpoofs?

Although the Fall season is practically with us there is still time for the enterprising student to garner himself a bit of glory by capturing some of the remarkable specimens of whiffinpoofs which, despite the lateness of the season, are still in great numbers about the campus.

Whiffinpoofs, it is doubtless known, are those peculiar specks of mammal—or something—which fill higher and yon through the atmosphere at terrific rates of speed. So fast do they travel that they, when in motion, are invisible to the naked eye. There are those who will argue that whiffinpoofs are invisible to the naked—or fully clothed—eye whether or not they are in motion. These persons, however, are decidedly in error.

All one must do in order to become aware of the swift winging creatures is to spend some three odd hours in the vain pursuit of biological science, smoke four hand rolled cigarettes in quick succession, step into the glaring sunlight—or moonlight, if that is preferred—and close one's eyes tightly. The closing of the eyes, of course, leaves the eyes no longer naked, as they are covered by the eyelids.

After one has once obtained a view of the whiffinpoofs, their capture becomes an easy matter. All that remains is to read several hundred additional pages of biological science, smoke four more hand rolled cigarettes, as before, in quick succession, and the method of capture will outline itself quickly without additional information needed.

Note: In case the reading of the biological science does not produce the desired results, it is suggested that an additional hour be spent in the reading of "Portraits and Prayers" by Gertrude Stein. Then one could not possibly fail to see whiffinpoofs.

Although the squad this year has a high percentage of freshmen, Coaches Milner and Stalcup have great hopes for the future of the Bearcats if they can hold the team together. The contest with East

Kentucky State Teachers Sept. 19 indicated that there is strong fighting material among the freshmen and they show promise of developing into real threats to future opponents.

Horace Mann Six Meets Fortescue For First Game

Team Coached by Former College. Athlete Uses Seven Lettermen.

The Horace Mann Cubs will play their first game in the No. 275 six-man football conference at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon on the college field when they meet Fortescue.

The Cubs have been slow developing in practice but are looking forward to a good season with seven lettermen on the squad.

Six of the players have been working out under the tutelage of Coaches Harry Darr and Vic Farrell since the first of September with the remainder of the squad starting to work with the beginning of school in the second week of the month.

Thus far, the kicking job is being handled by Jack Dieterich and Tom Surplus while those two and Stephen Lance are doing the passing for the Cubs. Lance is a left-handed thrower. Perhaps the most promising of the new squad members this year is Bob Burks, member of the backfield, who is speedy and rapidly picking up the game. Burks played basketball last year.

Just what competition Fortescue will offer is not known. They were defeated 6 to 0 by Westboro last week but it is still too early in the season to gain a yardstick by comparative scores.

Starting lineup for the Cubs Friday probably will be Eldon Farmer, center; Wilbur Sherlock, left end; Leslie Baker, right end; Jack Dieterich or Stephen Lance, halfback; Herb Dieterich, quarterback; and Surplus, fullback. Surplus was shifted from end to fullback this fall and is going good in the backfield.
